Roxanne Carter

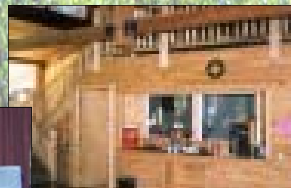

Create at the Lake© is an awe-inspiring quilting experience sponsored by Cattle Country Quilts. Create at the Lake© is held each year near the crystal clear Wallowa Lake in the rural northeastern corner of Oregon.

The spectacular scenery and abundant wildlife are sure to spark your quilting skills.

Cattle Country Quilts is pleased to announce that renowned quilting teacher, Roxanne Carter will again be teaching for Create at the Lake© .

Roxanne and her husband Rob hail from Mukilteo, Washington. Roxanne was nominated as Quilting Teacher of the Year and regularly designs for Maywood Studios, Fabric Visions, and David Textiles. She has authored quilting books published by That Patchwork Place and has designed more than 35 quilting patterns. Roxanne is also a featured teacher for the Quilt Camp At Sea cruises.

For the first time, Retreaters will choose from FIVE of Roxanne's outstanding patterns, ranging from "easy" to "advanced."

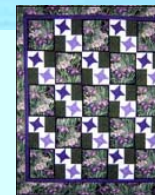

The Wallowa Lake Camp and Retreat Center's cabins are well-equipped with kitchenettes, private baths and wooden decks from which you will enjoy the mountainous scenery and abundant wildlife.

Enjoy delicious buffet-style meals and Bailey Lodge's massive fireplace. You'll be quilting near the spectacular Wallowa Lake, flanked by the majestic Wallowa Mountains.
